MEMORANDUM FOR SEE DISTRIBUTION

SUBJECT: Housing Single Pregnant Military Personnel, Policy Letter #32

1. REFERENCES:

- a. Army Regulation 210-50, Housing Management, Sep 97.
- b. USAREUR Regulation 210-50, Housing Management, Aug 92.

2. PURPOSE: To establish the 235th Base Support Battalion policy on housing assignments to single pregnant soldiers residing in the barracks.

3. APPLICABILITY: To all commanders, unit commanders and tenant units within the 235th Base Support Battalion's area of responsibility.

4. POLICY:

a. Pregnant military personnel, otherwise without family members, may be placed on the waiting list when a medical authority confirms the pregnancy. The eligibility date is the date of application.

b. These soldiers may also request a Statement of Non-Availability (SNA) as soon as pregnancy is confirmed. Commanders are encouraged to approve the request for SNA before the end of the sixth month of pregnancy. This will allow the soldier sufficient time to locate suitable private rental housing prior to giving birth.

c. If off-post housing is unavailable, government housing, permanent or temporary, will be projected for pregnant military personnel at the seventh month of pregnancy.

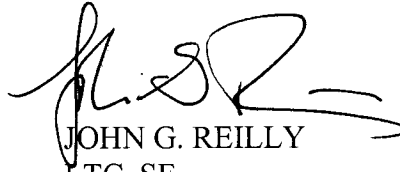

d. The sponsor must provide documentation of approved tour extension and command sponsorship within 30 days after the birth of the child. Failure to provide documentation may jeopardize SM's housing privileges and entitlements.

e. Sponsors must ensure their newly acquired family member(s) are registered with the U.S. consulate to ensure child's U.S. status.
